

Lilian learns about good hygiene and clean water from Compassion. She walks one hour every day to collect fresh water for her family.

Compassion

Omari's family could not afford a toy, so his Compassion teacher helped him make one.

After learning about healthy meals from Compassion, Abinaya helps her mom make dinner in their kitchen outside.

In some countries, safe water is hard to find. At Compassion's child development centers, children get plenty of clean water to keep them healthy.

Antonio loves taking music lessons and hearing about God at his Compassion child development center. His favorite song to play is "Jesus Loves Me."