

COMPASSION sunday®

hope for every ONE.

“TRULY I TELL YOU, WHATEVER YOU DID FOR ONE OF THE LEAST OF THESE BROTHERS AND SISTERS OF MINE, YOU DID FOR ME.”

— Matthew 25:40, NIV

SCRIPTURE IS CLEAR: When we serve the poor, we serve God. When we honor people living in poverty, we honor his Son. When we protect the oppressed, we protect the kingdom of Christ.

Today, we're going to have an opportunity to do just that — an opportunity to serve, honor and protect “the least of these brothers and sisters,” in a time when it's needed more than ever.

How? By choosing to sponsor a child living in poverty.

Today is Compassion Sunday — a day set apart to change the story for children living in poverty around the world. You'll be invited to sponsor a precious child who would love to have someone like you to serve, honor and protect them. To love them. And to give them hope.

Today you can follow Christ's call to stand up for “the least of these.” Will you?

Say “YES!” and sponsor a child today.
