

Compassion GoRep Program Expectations of Service

- Maintains a personal relationship with, and is a consistent witness for, Jesus Christ; maintains a courteous, Christ-like attitude when interacting with all individuals.
- Acts as an advocate for children – raising the awareness of the needs, neglect, nurture, and potential of children in poverty, challenging and enabling those within one's influence to greater involvement on behalf of children.
- Demonstrates the ability to listen, analyze, and creatively solve problems as an individual or in a team.
- Collaborates well with others, being sensitive to differing views.
- Engages with supporters and volunteers to generate awareness of Compassion's mission with sincerity and passion and encourage future involvement with Compassion.
- Serves as the primary or secondary on-site facilitator for Compassion-partnered events. This includes but is not limited to setup and teardown of booths or other marketing spaces, facilitating volunteers (assisting volunteers with entrance to the event, parking, etc.) and some relational responsibilities where necessary and directed. May take direction from the primary facilitator or staff if one is present at the event.
- Manages and implements travel itineraries and logistics with oversight from manager. Will work with other Compassion representatives to coordinate travel schedules.
- Communicates thoroughly with all marketing staff in preparation for each event, and as necessary throughout the duration of the event. May be asked to communicate with Event Volunteers in the same capacity.
- Implements marketing strategies and maximizes opportunities for Compassion at events to meet or exceed our goals and be the best stewards of Compassion's investment in the activity, as directed by marketing staff.
- Maintains detailed reports including accurate evaluation of the event, results, and feedback for the event directors, church team directors, and other interested parties post events.
- Clears background check during onboarding (offers made are at the sole discretion of management based on results).
- Provide proof of car insurance, commercial general liability insurance, and driver's license before the start of the program. General Liability and Automobile Insurance Requirements:
 - Commercial General Liability Requirements - General Liability including Contractual Liability coverage, with limits of no less than $1,000,000 per occurrence for Bodily Injury or Property Damage and $2,000,000 in the aggregate
 - Include Compassion as an Additional Insured with the activities contemplated by the SOW(s) of this Agreement. Name Compassion as a certificate holder.
 - Automobile Liability - a minimum combined single limit of $1,000,000 per accident or Personal Auto policy with allowed business usage included.
- May be required to cover reimbursable expenses for travel and other miscellaneous event materials. Holds at least two payment methods (i.e. Credit Card, Debit Card, etc.)
- Invoices Compassion accurately and promptly for event pay and reimbursable expenses.
- Participates and curates content for the Compassion GoReps Instagram as needed and when scheduled.
